Bamberg Barons, Lady Barons sweep the court

By Jessica Lipari,
USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- The Bamberg Middle High School basketball teams heated up the court on Friday here.

Winning the jump shot and taking a 7-0 lead in the first three minutes of the game, the Bamberg Barons triumphed to a 68-51 victory over the visiting Hohenfels Tigers.

With a fast break, Anthony Cortright drove to the basket and dunked the ball in the first quarter.

The Barons never looked back after this, maintaining the lead 37-21 at half time.

In the second half of the game the Barons improved on their playing man-to-man defense and were able to box-out their opponents and get the rebounds to ensure their victory.

"We are playing like the past," said Tim Smith, Bamberg Barons coach. "We lost a lot of kids this year and are now a Division III school."

"We are learning to play together and the team

Register, request absentee ballot for upcoming election

By Sina Kingsbury,
USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- One of the first steps to electing a president are the primary elections.

During the next few months, each state will have a primary election to select a candidate for the presidential election in November.

Whether you are living in the United States or stationed overseas, you have the right to vote for your favorite candidate.

The Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, or UOCAVA, assists all U.S. military personnel, family members and civilians living overseas with making their votes count.

Soldiers, family members and civilians residing here who are

U.S. residents can submit a Federal Post Card Application for the elections by going to the Federal Voting Assistance Program homepage and following the instructions in the Voting Assistance Guide.

In a few easy steps, you can register to vote and request an absentee ballot:

1. Visit www.fvap.gov.
2. Click on "I am a uniformed service member or family member" or "I am a citizen living outside of the U.S." link.
3. Select your state.
4. Choose register to vote/request ballot.
5. Complete application, by providing your personal information along with voting information.

Renowned speaker to educate through bullying, parenting seminar

By Sina Kingsbury,
USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- It is a schoolyard's most dangerous union; children who get what they want from their target, those who are afraid to tell and bystanders who watch, participate or look away.

Some adults may see bullying as teasing or a part of childhood growing pains, but according to Barbara Coloroso, an internationally recognized author and speaker, "Bullying is a life and death issue that we ignore at our children's peril."

"It can no longer be minimized and trivialized by adults, taken lightly, brushed off or denied," Coloroso said.

Coloroso will be returning here to speak on a series of lectures Jan. 23 at Warner Barrack's Reel Time Movie Theater.

The first lecture will be on a menacing threefold: the bully, the bullied and the bystander and cyber bullying from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. and the second lecture will be about parenting through wit and wisdom from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Coloroso achieved her effective strategies on parenting and teaching throughout years as a student, educator, humanitarian and mother. She has appeared on Oprah, CNN, NBC, and National Public Radio and has been featured in the New York Times, Time, Newsweek, Teen Vogue and other national and international publications.

"The lecture made me more aware of, being with the 4-and 5-year-olds, that it starts early and it needs to be stopped early in order for it not to continue on," said Michelle Hicks, Strong Beginnings teacher, who attended Coloroso's lecture last May. "It brought awareness to me: simple things here and there are going to escalate when they go to elementary school and further on."

Child Development Center's Supervisory Program Lead Amber Richardson added, "And that we can form a foundation on empathy, genuine caring and the emotional aspect of allowing them the opportunity to care for one another in a meaningful matter and to not just brush off behaviors that are unacceptable.

Make it across the board intolerable."

Bullying is not about anger or conflict, it is about contempt, Coloroso said. It is about seeking pleasure from someone else's pain.

In addition to bullying prevention and awareness, Coloroso lectured on anti-bullying policies, procedures, programs and cyberbullying.

During Coloroso's next visit here, she will offer advice to parents on Family life to help create a home environment in which children can become self-disciplined, compassionate, responsible, resourceful, resilient human beings who can act in their own best interest, stand up for themselves and exercise their own rights while respecting the rights and legitimate needs of others.

The two seminars are open to parents, teachers, students or anyone interested in eliminating cruelty and torment within Warner Barracks' schools, but also within its homes, workplace and community. For more information, call 0951-300-7891. For more information on Barbara Coloroso visit, www.kidsareworthit.com.

Sock-hop themed auction raises funds to give back to community

By Jessica Lipari,
USAG Bamberg Public Affairs

BAMBERG, Germany -- Going once, going twice, sold. Dust off the poodle skirt, roll up the jeans and raise your bidding paddle to show support for the annual Bamberg Spouses and Civilians' Club Basket and Silent Auction on Feb. 3 at the Warner Conference Center at 6 p.m.

"This year's theme is a fifties-style sock-hop," said Marylou Solorzano, BSCC 1st vice president. "The auction is a time to have fun, let loose and a way to continue supporting the community."

All the proceeds earned by the BSCC at the basket and silent auction are given back to the community through scholarships and welfare grants.

"The basket and silent auction is open to all members of the community and all are encouraged to attend," Solorzano said. "The goal is to raise as much money as possible."

For over 50 years the BSCC has had a strong presence in the Warner Barracks community, they host various fundraising events throughout the year to raise funds to help support organizations, units and individuals.

"Last year we raised over $5,500 from the basket auction and an additional $1,000 from the silent auction," Solorzano said.

"We had 42 baskets to auction off last year and the top basket went for over $500," she said. "The basket was for a one night stay at Giechburg Castle and included items for a romantic evening. Don't fret though there are baskets with lower values and silent auction items to appeal to everyone's spending limit; every penny helps."

The basket and silent auction is the BSCC's second largest event in the year, next to the annual bazaar, which will take place May 4 to 6. Various units and organizations within the community donate baskets and silent auction items to the BSCC for the event. The basket auction committee welcomes any basket or silent auction item donations, for more information e-mail bscc.basket.auction@googlemail.com.

The evening will start off with a diner style dinner and time to bid on silent auction items. At 7 p.m. the auction will begin. Tickets are $15 per person and include dinner and a bidding paddle. RSVP by Jan. 27 at bscc.reservations@yahoo.com.

is doing a better job,” Smith said. “Our defense is still a little soft.”

Cortright was the leading scoring for the night with 28 points and 12 rebounds.

Cortright was easily the most valuable player of the night, but the high school junior credits his team for his success.

“Tonight was full of energy coming from my teammates,” Cortright said.

“There was good chemistry that allowed us to feed off each other and keep the game going,” he said.

Teammate Terry Williams added that it was the Barons best game all season.

“If we keep it up like this we have a good shot at Europeans,” Williams said.

Williams was the second leading scorer for the night with 14 points and 9 rebounds.

“I don’t play basketball, I live it,” Williams said.

In the varsity girls game the Lady Barons stole a 41-31 victory over the Hohenfels Tigers.

Coached by Dewayne Gamble the team improved their season record to 2-4.

“We are a small team with a lot of newcomers,” Gamble said. “It has taken some time but we are starting to gel well together.”

“Being the only Division III team in Germany we are playing against Division II and I teams,” Gamble said.

“We will not see another Division III team until the championships,” he said.

Leading scorer for the Lady Barons was Natesha Godbee with 13 points.

Both Godbee and Bowen fouled out in the fourth quarter.

This Saturday at 1 p.m. the Lady Barons will play a friendship game against a local German team. The community is welcome to come watch and show their support.

BMHS’s junior varsity girls and boys teams also defeated the Hohenfels Tigers in their games.

"imAlone" Program

While it is never possible to guarantee that youth will be safe when left by themselves, or to give a specific age when staying home alone is developmentally acceptable, there are some guidelines, practices and safety rules that will help parents make this decision to help youths be successful. Child, Youth and School Service's "imAlone" Program will enhance the experience and improve the physical, social and emotional safety of youth alone at home. The program begins on Fri. Feb 3 at 11 a.m. at the John

F. Kennedy Teen Center. The program will meet five times this year. "imAlone" is a program for parents who believe their youths (11 and older) are ready to be home alone. Tools are received to help youths stay home successfully and help youths to learn how to be safe and healthy. For more information, call 0951-300-8660 or e-mail Annmarie.j.mcqueen.naf@mail.mil.

Eco-Friendly Tips

Water-saving Tips

1. Use only as much water as you need in the kettle to cut your electricity costs at the same time.
2. Report leaky faucets to the Work Order Section at 0951-300-5000.

Energy-saving Tips

1. Take advantage of daylight by using light-colored, loose-weave curtains on your windows to allow daylight to penetrate the room while preserving privacy.
2. Shut off coffee pots, radios and other appliances when not needed.

Recycling Tips

1. Reduce waste and energy consumption in the workplace- reuse your paper, if possible.
2. Get fruit and vegetables from a local grocer- avoid too much packaging.

Visit the city of Bamberg's official website

The screenshot shows the Bamberg official website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs for Home, Hotels & accommodation, Guided tours, and Packages. Below this is a sidebar menu with categories: Experience, Worth seeing, Culture, Active, For..., Service, and Specialist. The main content area features several articles and images. One article is titled 'Our tip – your personal delicacy!' and discusses regional Franconian delicacies. Another article is 'Bamberg - the beer city' and mentions 11 fine breweries. A third article is 'Bamberg - an unforgettable experience!' and describes the city's history and culture. There are also social media sharing options at the bottom of the page.
